

Historic College Park Neighborhood Association
November 10th, 2009

President, Rick Pierce Welcome

- I. Guest Speaker, Sonja Brown, Assistant District Attorney
 - a. Repeat Offenders Update

- II. Police Report, Chief Kuzniacki
 - a. Burglaries are down
 - b. Lowest month since March

- III. Public Safety Report, Mary Sheffield
 - a. Started working with the city to study statistics to better examine our neighborhood
 - b. Next meeting we will have a map to show where the crimes are happening to show where there are block captains and where there are none
 - c. No longer giving public safety reports at the HCPNA meetings – we want to drive traffic to the Public Safety meetings so they can get involved and learn more
 - d. Meeting next Wednesday, the Public Safety Building, 7pm

- IV. Government Report, Eileen Murphy
 - a. Election Update
 - i. City Council Ward 2 and Ward 4
 1. Ward 4, tie, run-off election, December 4th
 - ii. State Senate Race
 1. Tie, run-off Election, December 4th
 - iii. Walker Road -- a Group Home Variance
 1. 1794 Walker Road
 2. 3346 Reed Street is the correct property
 3. City looking to deny due to the fact there is already another Group Home in the area and it was posted on the wrong property
 4. If you see a property that is vacant in Ward 1 for more than 6 months – let Eileen know so she can contact the city to make sure it reverts back to a single family home residency, per Zoning laws

- V. Treasurer's Report, Eileen Murphy
 - a. HCPNA Regular Account: $6,817.39
 - i. More income than expenses
 - b. Special Events Account: $6,517.61
 - c. Membership dues up for renewal
 - d. Working on 2010 budget to be approved by next Board Meeting

VI. Arts Festival

- a. Even though it shut down several hours earlier due to rain, it broke even, so “hats off”!
- b. Survey on tables to take

VII. Membership Report , Kip Carr

- a. 172 Members
- b. Memberships due are due for 2010 as of November 1st
- c. Can sign up and pay tonight
- d. Can go and pay on line via PayPal
- e. We’re looking for new members to give us more information on how they would like to be involved in the future.

VIII. Dogwoods and Sidewalks – Patty Mclver

- a. Set schedule to coincide with our HCPNA events
- b. Deadline will change in the future
- c. Send all articles to Patty

Announcements:

- Holiday Party
 - The Manchester Arms
 - Opening just for us!
 - 5-7pm
 - Saturday, December 5th
 - Appetizers provided by HCPNA
 - Door Prizes
 - Cash Bar
 - Please bring an unwrapped toy or donation for the College Park Police Department Toy Drive
 - Must have dues up-to-date to enter
- College Park Presbyterian Church
 - Music Concert Series continues this weekend
 - Children’s Christmas Pageant
- Sunday at 4:00 – Community Thanksgiving Service, at the Methodist Church, sponsored by the Woman’s Club. Father Troy will be preaching.
- This Saturday, Kiwanis 6th Annual Waffle Breakfast Meeting, 7-11am, College Park First United Methodist Church
- Next HCPNA Meeting In January

Notes taken by Stephanie Roppolo, HCPNA Board Secretary