

HCPNA ARTS FESTIVAL 2009

Saturday September 26th 11am-5pm

Our mission is to feature artists displaying quality work in all mediums. This juried event takes place in beautiful Barrett Park in the Historic District of College Park, There will also be a live music stage performing throughout the day featuring some of Atlanta's finest talent.

We look forward to sharing the hospitality of our community and have many volunteers available to make your day here an enjoyable experience.

Our advertising efforts will be concentrated in newspapers, local magazines, audio and cable TV. Prior to the event brochures and posters will be distributed throughout the Metro area.

We would like to highlight the Artist Market in our brochure and website. Please include with your application and information about yourself and your artwork that you might like to be considered for publication.

We are pleased to bring back Artist Awards for 2009
Awards are based on booth display as well as original artwork.
